Re: Adams v. Dr. Arab, et al.
United States District Court - Southern District of California
Case No. 10cv706-CAB (BLM)

Dear Mr. Adams:

It has been a pleasure working with you in your lawsuit against Dr. Arab. While we are all disappointed that the jury did not return a favorable verdict, we commend you for all of the hard work and effort you committed to bringing this matter to trial. Given your limited resources, we are very impressed that you were able to litigate this matter in federal court.

As you know, we volunteered our time to assist you in this matter until the end of trial. As such, this letter confirms that we are no longer performing any work on this matter or any other matters on your behalf. If you choose to appeal the jury's verdict in this matter, you will need to do so immediately in order to comply with certain mandatory deadlines that affect your ability to appeal the jury's verdict. Mr. Adams, we wish you the best of luck in all of your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Malcolm Roberts
