Re: Adams v. Arab

Dear Paul:

We write to update you on your case, which has been successfully concluded. As we discussed, the court entered the stipulated order dismissing the medical defendants, Warden Small signed the settlement agreement, and the Court then entered the stipulated order dismissing the case. For your records, we've attached copies of: (1) the signed settlement agreement; (2) the filed stipulation to dismiss the medical defendants; (3) the order dismissing the medical defendants; (4) the filed stipulation to dismiss the case; and (5) the order dismissing the case.

The only remaining item is for the government to apply the funds to your outstanding restitution balance. You should see the payoff reflected on your inmate trust account statement once it goes through. Per the settlement agreement, that could take up to 180 days (as we discussed), but our hope is that it will be more like 6-12 weeks. Please let us know by return letter as soon as you receive a statement reflecting the payoff.

Sincerely,

Chris Whittaker

We will set-up a call with you for the week of June 27. That will give you a chance to read these documents over and ask us any questions about them.

Sincerely,
